LESSON RECAP

You live on an inheritance. You can stop clocking in.

Paul paints a picture his readers knew: a young heir owns the whole estate, yet lives under guardians and trustees until the date his father sets (Galatians 4:1-2). Then "the set time had fully come" (4:4). God sent His Son, sent the Spirit who cries "Abba, Father" (4:6), and changed your status for good: "no longer a slave, but God's child" (4:7).

THE WORD AT THE HEART OF GALATIANS 4

klēronomos

GREEK · KLAY-RON-OM-OS

Heir. One who receives a share, a portion handed out by lot. Paul uses it in Galatians 4:1 and again in 4:7.

	Living like an employee	Living like an heir
ASKS	"What do I have to do to get paid?"	"What has my Father given me, and how do I steward it?"
PRAYS	Like requesting time off from a manager	"Abba, Father" (Galatians 4:6)
STATUS	Under guardians and trustees (4:2)	God's child and heir (4:7)

> "So you are no longer a slave, but God's child; and since you are his child, God has made you also an heir."

THE BACK STORY

Meanwhile, in Galatia...

BOOK ID CARD

Written by: Paul (Galatians 1:1)
To: the churches in Galatia (1:2)
When: about AD 48 to 57 (debated)
Format: a letter, and a fiery one short letter. huge freedom.

What was going on

Some teachers were telling Gentile believers they had to keep parts of the Jewish law, like circumcision, to fully belong (Galatians 5:2-4; 6:12).

Paul's answer: you already belong. "So in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith" (3:26, NIV).

Read the letter like a playlist

Galatians 1-2
Paul's story. One gospel, no add-ons.

Galatians 3
Abraham's family, by faith (3:29).

Galatians 4
Heirs, not slaves (4:7).

Galatians 5-6
Free, so walk by the Spirit (5:1, 5:16).

Why it matters

An underage heir "is no different from a slave, although he owns the whole estate" (4:1). Paul's readers knew that household picture. Many historians note Roman sons came of age when their father chose, trading a purple-bordered toga for a plain white one.

The set time came (4:4), the Spirit came (4:6), and your status changed (4:7). Paul even writes "son" on purpose: in his world sons inherited, and now every believer, daughters included, gets the full share (2 Corinthians 6:18).

SO WHAT?

SPARK · 5 MIN

What's one thing you apologize for, even when you don't need to?

host goes first.

READ IT OUT LOUD · 5 MIN

Read Galatians 4:1-7 together. Listen for every family word: son, heir, Father, Abba.

QUESTIONS · 25 MIN · START LIGHT, GO DEEPER

1. Where do you catch yourself asking permission for things that are already yours?
2. Paul says an underage heir "is no different from a slave" (4:1). How can someone own everything and still live like staff?
3. The Spirit in us calls out "Abba, Father" (4:6). What changes when you pray to a Father instead of a manager?
4. Heirs share the estate. Who could you bring to your table this season?
5. Deep End: On a scale of 1 (employee) to 10 (heir), where are you with God today? What would you ask for if you prayed like an heir?

PRAY IT
Once this week, pray with no warm-up speech. Start with "Abba," then ask.

READ IT
Ephesians 1:11-14. Circle every inheritance word.

SHARE IT
Tell one woman, by name, a gift God has given her.

CLOSE IN PRAYER

Father, You say we are Your children, and since we are Your children, Your heirs. Teach us to live from that. Take the clock-in out of our prayers and put "Abba" in our mouths. Make our tables wide enough for one more. Amen.
